European Architectural History Network 1st international Conference in 2010

The Action was well represented at EAHN 2010 (Guimaraes, 16-19 June 2010). Johan and Ola coordinated the Round-table « Setting a research agenda for colonial architecture and urban planning: current and emerging themes and tools”; Mercedes with Joe Nasr coordinated the Round-table « Still on the margin: Reflections on the Persistence of the Canon in Architectural History ». Both sessions were well attended (about 70 participants each).

EAHN 2012 will take place in Brussels, 31 May-3 June 2012. The opportunity to organize an Action event in conjunction should be considered.
